Facilitators Wanted

Bullion Hall is looking for an experienced male facilitator – or potentially several facilitators with different areas of expertise – to support our established weekly Men's Shed.

We are looking for someone able to create a safe, respectful and non-judgmental environment, facilitate sensitive group discussions, recognise and respond appropriately to distress and safeguarding concerns, and help men develop coping strategies and realistic routes forward.

Sessions will focus on:

Addictions • Anxiety, Depression & Anger Management • Suicide Prevention • Managing Change, Loss & Transition

Relevant experience might come from mental health, counselling, recovery/addiction services, suicide prevention, men's wellbeing, community support or social care.

Relevant lived experience is especially welcomed

Interested? Send a short expression of interest outlining your relevant experience, the programme areas you could support, how you would like to work with us and your availability.
